

Speaker Bio for DON TUCKER

For the past 15 years, Don has served as a Safety Engineer and Trainer on behalf of CHUBB/ESIS utilizing his expertise as an OSHA and CAL-OSHA trainer with focuses in 1910 (General Industry) and 1926 (Construction) and as a DOT Specialist with focuses on Flagger roadside safety to help organizations identify losses and trends and eliminate unnecessary accidents and injuries to create a safer workplace.

During his 27 years of experience in the safety industry, Don has been a Senior Risk Management Consultant assisting with Loss Control for OSHA Compliance in both Construction and General Industry. He is a Competent Person Trainer/Instructor for Confined Space Entry, Safe Construction Practice, and Heavy Roadway/Bridge/Tunneling. Additionally, Don has qualification experience on projects such as DGS State of CA Central Plant, Cal Trans - Doyle Drive Project, Highway 680 HOT Project, 101 Wilfred Project, Highway 65 Lincoln Bypass Project, and Highway I-5 Reconstruction Project. He uses these skills and experience to equip others to implement and apply action plans to address serious events within the workplace through identification and education about safety related topics.